

For more information and registration

Visit plano.prestonwoodchristian.org/bwconference.

Biblical Worldview Institute 2021

“Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the best use of the time.
Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.”

Colossians 4:5-6

Tuesday, November 9

- Against Politeness: Why Politeness Failed America and How Civility Can Save It

Alexandra Hudson is passionate about the way that ideas, storytelling, and beauty can change people's lives. She is the curator of "Civic Renaissance", a newsletter and intellectual community dedicated to lifelong learning, goodness, truth, and healing our public discourse through reviving the wisdom of the past. Hudson is an award-winning writer and journalist currently writing a book on civility and civic revival.

- Cancel Culture on the College Campus Panel Discussion

Adam Wright, Ph.D. – President of Dallas Baptist University

Blake Thompson, Ph.D. – President of Mississippi College

Ryan Bangert, J.D. – Senior Counsel and Vice President for Legal Strategy at Alliance Defending Freedom

- God's Shalom in Our Troubled Culture

Jeremiah J. Johnston, Ph.D. is known for his unique communication skills and his infectious love for people. Jeremiah is a New Testament scholar, author, nationally syndicated radio host, apologist, a contributor for Fox News, and ministers internationally as President of Christian Thinkers Society. Johnston's passion is working with local churches and pastors in equipping Christians to give intellectually informed accounts of what they believe.

Tuesday, November 9

Wednesday, November 10

8:00 a.m.—Noon

Prestonwood Baptist Church

8:00- Doors open

8:15 - Livestream begins

8:30 - Noon - Keynote Speakers

Wednesday, November 10

- Civility among the Races

Darrell B. Harrison serves as Dean of Social Media at Grace to You, the bible-teaching ministry of John MacArthur. He has a blog called "Just Thinking . . . for Myself," and is the lead host of the Just Thinking podcast. Harrison is a fellow of the Black Theology and Leadership Institute (BTLI) at Princeton Theological Seminary (PTS) in Princeton, New Jersey, and is a graduate of the Theology and Ministry program at PTS.

- Messy Truth: How to Foster Community Without Sacrificing Conviction

Caleb Kaltenbach is Research Pastor at Shepherd Church in Los Angeles and founder of The Messy Grace Group where he helps churches love and foster community with LGBTQ individuals without sacrificing theological convictions. He's the author of Messy Truth, God of Tomorrow, and Messy Grace (where he discusses being raised in the LGBTQ community, following Jesus, and how loving others doesn't require shifting beliefs).

- The Illusion of Civility

Jim Munroe is a Christian Illusionist and the author of The Charlatan. He is a sought-after speaker at conferences and events around the world. Munroe's story is widely recognized from its feature with "I Am Second." When he is not speaking or writing, he leads a theatrical production company called The Maze which performs throughout the world.

Also on Tuesday, November 9
Lunch and Christian College Fair
Breakout sessions with speakers